

The Mystery of the Missing Bell

a Gigi & Mimi adventure

This adventure belongs to

"You make a very good detective."

A complete story. A tiny treasure. Their name on the front.

THE STORY

Gigi had a tiny silver bell hanging beside her garden gate. Whenever the wind blew, it made the prettiest little sound. Ting-a-ling.

One morning, the garden was strangely quiet. “Gigi! The bell is gone!”

They searched beneath the gate, beside the flowerpots, underneath the bench. Then something sparkled in the grass — a tiny golden ribbon.

The golden trail led all the way to the butterfly garden. Very faintly, among the flowers, came a sound. Ting.

Caught on a low branch was the tiny silver bell. “The wind must have carried it!”

Together they tied it securely in place. A breeze fluttered through the garden. Ting-a-ling. Ting-a-ling.

Mimi tucked the golden ribbon into her explorer bag. “I like clues,” she grinned.

IN YOUR ENVELOPE

- A tiny silver bell
- A snippet of golden ribbon
- A “clue” card for your hunt

EXPLORER MISSION

Tie the ribbon in two or three spots leading to where you hide the bell. Listen. Follow. Return the bell to a door handle or garden gate.

FOR THE GROWN-UP

Grown-up whisper: hide the bell before storytime. Let the ribbon be the trail. A bedroom doorknob makes a perfect “garden gate.”
